INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY!

FIRST READING: Exodus 32:7 - 11, 13 - 14

The people of Israel forgot God's goodness and turned to idols. Moses pleaded with God for mercy, and the Lord God showed kindness to them.

SECOND READING: 1 Timothy 1:12 - 17

The apostle Paul described to Timothy why he gave thanks to the Lord. Despite Paul's sin, Christ Jesus treated him mercifully and strengthened him.

GOSPEL: Luke 15:1 - 32

Jesus taught that God loves a sinner as a loving father receives back a wayward son. Repentance leads to joy, celebration, music, danceing, gifts, and food. "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." This criticism of Jesus is actually unintentional praise. If we are honest, we know that we are among the sinners with whom Jesus breaks bread. As we listen to God's holy word today, let us hear these stories of God's mercy and love in all three readings, and think of the times in our own lives when we were in need of such mercy. Then let us give thanks for our merciful God.

LITURGY AND WORD

The Golden Calf or the Molten Calf embodies the vilest kind of apostasy committed by the ancient Israelites. The events described in today's first reading takes place at Mt Sinai. The people who become impatient for the return of Moses from the mountain top agitate for the creation of some gods they can worship. Aaron obliges their request by collecting gold from the people and creates a molten calf. As a result of this and after seeing that an altar has been erected for this calf, the anger of God and Moses erupts, and Moses descends from the mountain to correct the situation. He destroys the calf and accuses Aaron of complicity in the apostasy and asks the sons of Levi to kill those who participated in the apostasy.

The sin of Israel is that they have sought to replace the living God with an idol which they see being formed from the gold of their earrings! God vows the severest punishment imaginable but leaves the door open for Moses' intercession. He allows himself to be persuaded. That is what a mediator is for. Moses uses three arguments to appease God's anger. a) He appeals to God's miraculous delivery of Israel from Egypt. b) He calls to mind how the Egyptians will interpret Israel's destruction, bringing shame on God himself. c) He appeals to the promise of God to the Fathers. Moses does not attempt to excuse or mitigate Israel's sin, but he seeks to overcome it by falling back ultimately on what God can do in making a future possible. The Gospel of today demonstrates how God forgives sinners and cares for them. Jesus tells the parables of the Lost Sheep, the Lost Coin and the Prodigal Son as a response to the murmuring of the Scribes and the Pharisees that Jesus associates with tax collectors and sinners by receiving them and having table fellowship with them. After telling the parable of the Lost Sheep Jesus comments that there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. Similarly after the parable of the Lost Coin Jesus says there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents. When the prodigal son returns, while he is yet at a distance, his father sees him and runs and embraces him and kisses him. He tells his servants to give him the best of robes, a ring for his hand, and shoes for his feet. He then orders to make a feast with the best calf killed.

Paul writes that Christ has come into the world to save sinners. He also acknowledges being the foremost of sinners. None of us is without sin. If Paul who blasphemed and persecuted and insulted Christ by insulting the Church and the Christians has become the pillar of the Church, then we also need not be afraid. Through repentance and good works we too can regain the life we have lost through our sins.
